heard it on the GLOMSKI GRAPEVINE

By Eric Glomski, Founder & Director of Winegrowing

The reality is that I have never thought of myself as a good manager. Good leader? Yes. A person with vision and the will to make that vision reality? Yes. Good manager…no. (A reluctant one at best.) People often think of these terms, these roles, as somewhat synonymous. While I would agree that there are people out there who are both, I think they are extremely rare. A leader is someone who inspires people. A leader is a person who helps others get charged up about a common goal, a battle, a peak, a project – creating things, overcoming obstacles. A leader convinces people of possibility helps them to ...

Defying Gravity By Gayle Glomski, Vineyard Coordinator

The door was open, I followed Eric, nervous and excited. I sat next to him while the door closed behind me, and I pulled a metal bar toward us which hovered over my legs. No seat belts, no destination – just trust. Secure your belongings and keep your hands and feet inside at all times. I knew this was going to be a ride I'd never experienced before - although I'd been on many coasters before. I kept my eyes open as the cart...

Winemaker Evolution

By Corey Turnbull, Winemaker

Although the time has passed seemingly in a blink of an eye, I have just realized that it has been 20 years since I first met Eric Glmoski and came to his Page Springs Winery. At the time, I was a much "springier" 25-year-old with a passion for wine just beginning to bud, and like other kids that age, I thought I knew it all...

My Journey in Wine

By Bree Nation, Assistant Winemaker

My journey into the wine industry began in 2012 when I relocated from my birthplace in Phoenix, Arizona, to the Verde Valley with a clear intention: to get my foot in the door. I enrolled in Yavapai College's Viticulture and Enology program and began classes, eager to build a foundation in both grape growing and...

Changing the Guard

By Peter Kasperski, longtime PSC friend

The premise of this treatise is "Changing of the Guard". Buckingham Palace? Not so much. Chris Paul being released by the Clippers? That's more the Changing of the Point Guard (or Old Guard, to be fair). No, this is different. Mostly. As with any business, at Page Springs Cellars, the only true constant is change. Part of that...

PRIMA | WHAT'S IN MY BOX?

Quarter 1 2026

2023 DOS PADRES ROUSSANNE

100% Roussanne

Ripe pear and red apple with almond, cream, and white florals. Broad and lightly creamy on the palate, balanced by wet stone and brisk acidity.

Drinking window: 2026 - 2030 ~~$35~~/$31.50

2024 PAINTED LADY GEWURZTRAMINER

100% Gewurztraminer

Aromatic notes of lychee, rose petal, and ginger with bright tropical fruit and a crisp, lively finish. The final bottling from this vineyard.

Drinking window: 2025 - 2031 ~~$45~~/$40.50

2024 VINO DEL BARRIO BLANCA

26% Vermentino, 17% Malvasia Bianca, 15% Sauvignon Blanc, 13% Marsanne, 12% Roussanne, 10% Sémillon, 7% Grenache Blanc

White pear, golden apple, and citrus lead, with subtle white florals, sea spray, and wet stone. Medium-bodied with refreshing acidity.

Drinking window: 2024 - 2029 ~~$19~~/$17.10

PRO PAIRING TIP

Textured whites shine with richer seafood and poultry.

Try the 2023 Dos Padres Roussanne with roast chicken, scallops, or dishes with a touch of cream. Its breadth and subtle richness are kept in check by brisk acidity and mineral tension.
